

Instructor of The Mod

Jennifer Pierce was nominated by Medical Assisting student Cheylyn Ross for motivating and supporting her throughout her course.

“I strive to do better because she reminds me with comments on every graded assignment of my potential and how great I am. I still feel as though I receive individualized attention when I need it and that is a rare quality in any college! I will never forget my experience with SJVC because of her.” – Cheylyn Ross

Jennifer wants you to know:

- I completed my Bachelor's, Masters, and now PhD completely online, so I can relate to the students!
- I have 3 children ranging from 1-9 years old.
- I have been an active Girl Scout leader for my daughter's troop for 4 years!

Student of The Mod

Briana Hopkins is a recent Business Administration certificate graduate and made it on the Dean's List the entire program. She is currently pursuing her associate's degree with SJVC.

“She's a perfectionist and doesn't let anything stop her from being successful in her studies.” – Summer Alvarez, student advisor

Briana wants you to know:

- I enjoy being with my family
- I enjoy learning new objectives to further my career
- I enjoying working out at the gym

Welcome Back!

For those of you who've had the opportunity to work with her, you've probably missed her while she was away on maternity leave. Welcome back... Mele Leveaux – student advisor! Mele is ready and excited to work with her current and future students! Outside of work, she is spending time with her beautiful daughter, Cali (3 months old) and shopping for handbags and shoes. She has one daily goal in life and that's to always put a smile on someone's face. ☺
