

Instructor of The Mod

Huma Haque was nominated by the student services team for her positive attitude and going above and beyond to connect with all her students.

Huma wants you to know:

- I have been all over the world, lived in 3 continents, and speak several languages: Persian, German, French and Hindi and Urdu.
- I am very spiritual in nature and love to look at life with the perspective of always learning, gaining more knowledge and purpose of our being here. There is so much to learn and not enough time.
- I have been very lucky to be here today after surviving a fatal brain hemorrhage due a cerebral aneurysm 12 years ago. It taught me the true meaning and value of life. I always try to instill that into my students as well for them to stay motivated and keep ahead of their challenges.

Student of The Mod

Jaime Morris is a Medical Billing and Coding student and was nominated by her admissions advisor, Norma Helm for her determination and motivation.

“She should be student of the mod because she means business. She stays on top of her assignments and takes the time to send emails to myself and her student advisor. She’s a great communicator. – Norma Helm, Admissions Advisor

Jaime wants you to know:

- I have a dog that is 20 years old, he is a miniature sheltie his name is Mr. Stumps, he is my best friend!
- A favorite hobby of mine is geocaching.
