

Build your career on professional relationships

Human Resources Administration

SJVC's Human Resources Administration (HRA) program offers training in the procedures, policies and practices found in today's human resource departments.

Students develop the professional skills necessary to perform the duties of a human resource administrator.

Training Today for a Better Tomorrow

Hands-On Training

Students Learn:

- Personnel hiring and evaluation practices
- Staff training and development
- Payroll and benefits management
- Labor laws

Credentials

Graduates earn a Certificate of Completion or Associate of Science degree.

Hands-on practice includes a variety of computer applications, including:

- Microsoft® Office
- Word processing
- Spreadsheets
- Presentation software

These computer skills are valuable to human resource specialists, but they are also important skills to have for a variety of positions in administration.

Career Information

Businesses rely on skilled human resource personnel to assist in employee relations. Human resource professionals perform important tasks such as:

- Interpreting human resource policies and procedures
- Hiring employees and processing the related paperwork
- Preparing and maintaining employment records
- Maintaining current knowledge of labor laws such as Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)
