

Criminal Justice: Corrections

Protect and serve in an honorable career

SJVC's Criminal Justice: Corrections (CJC) program prepares graduates for a career in Corrections. The program includes instruction in criminal law, evidence collection and preservation, report writing, institutional corrections, defensive tactics, and physical agility training. Many graduates initially find work in security and develop entry-level work experience while they pursue employment as a correctional officer.

Students Learn

- Firearms use
- Arrest/control techniques
- Weaponless defense
- Courtroom procedures
- Criminal & civil law
- CPR & first aid

Professional Certifications

Graduates earn an Associate of Science degree, and the following certifications: Standards and Training for Corrections (STC) Adult Core Academy, which includes 8-hour Baton; and, Bureau of Security and Investigative Services (BSIS) certified training in Powers to Arrest, Weapons of Mass Destruction, Firearms, Baton, Chemical Agents, Public Relations, Observations and Documentation, Communications and its Significance, and, Liability and Legal Aspects – resulting in (BSIS) Security Guard Card and (BSIS) Security Guard Exposed Weapons permits.

Career Information

Upon completion of the Corrections program, many graduates first find work in Security, while some graduates go directly to work in Corrections.

Security and Loss Prevention Officers can expect to:

- Answer alarms and investigate disturbances
- Guard premises to prevent theft, violence, and breaking of laws and rules
- Monitor and authorize entry or exit of visitors, patrons or employees

Detention and Correctional Officers can expect to:

- Maintain security in buildings, towers and other areas of an adult correctional facility
- Intervene during emergencies or altercations within a correctional facility
- Escort/transport offenders

Admission Requirements

Admission to the CJC program requires:

- High school diploma or equivalent
- Passing score in Admissions assessment
- U.S. Citizenship
- No felony criminal convictions
- No misdemeanor convictions that would prohibit applicant from possessing a firearm
- No legal conditions that would prohibit applicant from possessing a firearm
- Valid California driver license
- Applicant must be in good health and physically fit
