

Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership

SJVC's Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership program may be completed in 75 weeks. This is a bridge program requiring completion of an Associate of Science Degree as detailed below (see Admission Requirements).

The program is designed for professionals who are interested in developing the skills and competencies of effective leaders. Learners will be exposed to a broad foundation in communication strategies, social dynamics, training and development, research and analysis, and learning and change. The Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership affords excellent opportunities for professional growth and development.

Students Learn:

Upon completion of this program, the successful student will be able to:

- Demonstrate effective communication and presentation skills for diverse audiences.
- Apply current research and data interpretation techniques to identify and evaluate solutions for emergent issues impacting the profession.
- Critically evaluate information from multiple sources for application in professional settings.
- Develop leadership skills that incorporate ethical and group decision-making, along with data analysis, to achieve positive outcomes within a diverse and multicultural organization.
- Identify the core elements related to communication, motivation, conflict resolution, and managing change within contemporary organizations.

At SJVC, we value:
