

Train for a rewarding career in Diagnostic Medical Sonography

SJVC's Diagnostic Medical Sonography (DMS) program prepares students to work in the medical field as an entry level medical sonographer.

Students will learn to perform ultrasound scanning examinations and record the data for interpretation by a physician. Graduates are prepared to provide effective oral and written communication to the health care team as it pertains to diagnostic results.

Training Today for a Better Tomorrow

Hands-On Training

Students Learn:

- Ultrasound scanning procedures
- Diagnostic data recording for interpretation by physician
- Performance of non-invasive diagnostic services
- Communication skills pertaining to patient education

Credential and Professional Certifications

Graduates earn an Associate of Science Degree in Diagnostic Medical Sonography.

SJVC holds registry status with the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT), which provides students a pathway to credentialing without a required number of post-graduate clinical/experiential hours. Upon graduation, students will be eligible to sit for the following exams, in the order noted. After successfully passing these exams, students will earn the Registered Diagnostic Medical Sonographer (RDMS) credential.

1. ARDMS Sonography Principles and Instrumentation (SPI) Exam
2. American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) Exam
3. ARDMS Speciality Exam for employment eligibility

An alternative exam pathway is available to graduates who have earned a previous health studies credential (please see the Program Director for more information). Students also earn certification in CPR/First Aid.

Career Information

Graduates will be prepared to work as an entry level diagnostic medical sonographer in a variety of settings such as a hospital, radiology imaging center, or medical clinic. Other career opportunities include working for a registry service or equipment manufacturer. These health technicians perform the following job duties:

- Prepare patients for procedures by taking a patient's history and answering any questions about the procedure
- Prepare and maintain imaging equipment
- Operate equipment to get diagnostic images of areas in the patient's body
- Analyze images to provide preliminary findings for physicians
- Record findings and keep track of patients' records

Admissions Requirements

Applicants must be at least 18 years of age, and have completed a minimum of 9 units from a combination of any of the following prerequisite courses with a grade of "C" or higher at an accredited college or university:

- Writing and Composition
- Intermediate Algebra or higher
- Anatomy and Physiology
- Medical Terminology

Nine units of prerequisite coursework will be applied to the general education graduation requirement.

Applicants who have successfully completed the prerequisites will be considered for admission into the program. Using a point-based system, applicants will be ranked on the following criteria: cumulative GPA on prerequisite courses, an assessment, professional references, and a personal interview with program faculty. Enrollment decisions are made by the Program Director or his/her designee.
