

Health Studies Associate Degree Program

SJVC's Health Studies program is available online and is designed for healthcare professionals (currently available to Dental Assisting Certificate of Completion program graduates) who want to advance their career and who have earned a certificate of completion from an institution of higher learning accredited by an agency that is recognized by the United States Department of Education. The Health Studies Associate of Science degree affords excellent opportunities for professional growth and development through instruction in general education coursework designed to produce the competencies of higher education that employers expect of college graduates.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the program, the successful student will be able to:

- 1. Relate and apply concepts of communication, reasoning, critical analysis, ethical behavior and appropriate interpersonal interaction to situations in his or her career and personal life.

Additionally, the general education coursework in the Health Studies program leads students directly to the success of the Institutional Learning Outcomes (ILOs) and Co-Curricular Learning Outcomes (CCLOs) of SJVC. The ILOs state that all graduates will be able to demonstrate skills in critical thinking, written and oral communication, quantitative reasoning, and information literacy. Equally important are the CCLOs: professionalism, intercultural awareness, self-awareness and learning, responsible citizenship, and leadership and teamwork. The courses taken in this program play a vital role in helping students accomplish these outcomes.

Admission Requirements

To be considered for admission to the Health Studies program, applicants must meet the following requirements:

- Successful completion of a minimum of 30.0 units of coursework in Dental Assisting
- Hold a Certificate of Completion in Dental Assisting from an institution of higher learning accredited by an agency that is recognized by the United States Department of Education
