

ALIGNMENT MATRIX: DA 310 COURSE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES TO PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

Legend: I=Introduction, D= Development, M= Mastery

COURSE CLOs	PLO 1	PLO 2	PLO 3	PLO 4	PLO 5	PLO 6
CLO 1 Categorize, identify, and relate legal requirements and ethics to patient records, auxiliary duties and supervisions, conditional and exempt duties, and terminology	D		D	D
CLO 2 Apply effective communication techniques for patient management, the psychology and management of dental patients, and overall interpersonal relationships					D	D
CLO 3 Apply practice management activities in scenarios, to include principles of the treatment planning process including medical health history data collection, charting, and data entry of patient treatment			D	D	D
CLO 4 Identify and apply infection control and OSHA regulations and procedures in accordance with the Dental Board of California and Cal-DOSH in a pre-clinical environment	D		D
CLO 5 Implement principles, protocols, armamentaria, and procedures for each duty that dental assistants and registered dental assistants are	D		D	D

ALIGNMENT MATRIX: DA 310 COURSE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES TO PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

Legend: I=Introduction, D= Development, M= Mastery

allowed to perform for data collection and chair side for periodontic and oral surgery procedures
CLO 6 Identify, analyze and assess abnormal conditions related to periodontic and oral surgery dentistry			D		D
CLO 7 Evaluate, relate and apply principles, protocols, armamentaria, procedures, and manipulate contemporary materials used in periodontic and oral surgery			D
CLO 8 Apply principles and federal, state, and local requirements related to pharmacology	D		D		D
CLO 9 Recognize and apply principles and protocols of medically compromised patient management, the psychology and management of dental patients, and overall interpersonal relationships					D	D
CLO 10 Report clinical observations of dental practice management in an extramural facility	D				D	D