

JEANEAL DAVIS

2016 Hughes Lane
Bakersfield, CA 93304

(323) 513-5706
davisjeaneal@yahoo.com

Summary

Program Director for Veterinary Technicians focuses on student success and effective management.

Education

Ross University School of Veterinary Medicine
Doctor of Veterinary Medicine
September 2010

Mount San Antonio College, Walnut, CA
Associate in Science, Registered Veterinary Technology
December 2006

University of California, Davis, CA
Bachelor of Science in Animal Science
May 1999

Experience

April 2015 to Present, San Joaquin Valley College, Bakersfield, CA
Veterinarian, Program Director Veterinary Technology

Developed the Veterinary Assistant curriculum for the certificate and associates degree. Developed and maintains the veterinary animal use protocols in accordance to USDA requirements. Participates in the selection of textbooks, software and capital equipment. Assesses and analyzes student mastery of program learning outcomes. Prepares coursework and teaches assigned courses.

October 2013 to April 2015, Vineyard Veterinary Hospital, Temecula, CA

Associate Veterinarian

Performed complete physical exams on pets to determine the nature of disease or injury and treat surgically or medically. Effectively used diagnostic tests to aid in diagnosis and treatment of pets. Performed routine surgical procedures.

July 2011 to August 2013, Moreno Valley Veterinary Services, Moreno Valley, CA

Associate Veterinarian

Performed physical exams. Performed routine surgical procedures. Maintained the health and wellbeing of the Moreno Valley shelter animals.

October 2010 to November 2010, Externship, Animal Care Center, Plainfield, IL

Veterinarian

The primary doctor for approximately 90 humane society animals. Performed physical exams on all existing and incoming humane society pets to determine the nature of disease or injury and treat the pet accordingly. Performed ovariohysterectomies and castrations on dogs and cats.

April 2002 to April 2007, Los Angeles County Sanitation Districts, Whittier, CA

Laboratory Technician

Performed water quality bioassay tests, field water analysis to determine dissolved oxygen, chlorine residual and pH of ambient water samples. Statistically analyzed test data using ToxCalc.

Skills

Ability to solve problems and work independently, very professional, student success oriented, proficient with all Microsoft programs, Cornerstone, Avimark and Infinity, organized, detail oriented, reliable and efficient.

Affiliations

American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA) member since 2010
California Veterinary Medical Association (CVMA) member since 2011
Southern California Veterinary Medical Association (SCVMA) member since 2011

References

Available upon request